

XM is a service I pay for, just like cable TV. What right does the NAB have to dictate what XM can or cannot do? If they want traffic and weather gone from XM radio, they should lobby to have it removed from cable TV.